

City Garden Montessori School to hold book launch, fundraiser

A book by a St. Louis-area entrepreneur will be unveiled Nov. 7 at a fundraiser hosted by the City Garden Montessori School.

Jeff Steinmann wrote and published "How to Quit Working: Leave Your Job and Create a Life of Freedom through Entrepreneurship," a comprehensive yet simple guide to help readers stop working at jobs they don't like and go into business for themselves.

"There's nothing more rewarding than helping aspiring entrepreneurs create new and successful businesses, so I'm excited about the book launch and fundraiser," Steinmann said. "It's going to be a fun event."

He will discuss the book and deliver the brief presentation "Three Simple Things You Can Do Right Now to Quit Working a Job You Don't Like." Steinmann will also offer a special product bundle to event attendees that includes a copy of his book, the audio program "Build a Life of Freedom and Flexibility" and the online program "How to Quit Working Now."

The bundle will be available for $100 with all proceeds benefitting the City Garden Montessori School, a charter school that offers primary, elementary and after-school programs.

The book launch will be held in the atrium at the school, which is located at 1618 Tower Grove Ave. in St. Louis. The event is free and open to the public. Doors will open at 5:30 p.m. The presentation will begin at 6 p.m. and conclude at 7 p.m.

Light hors d'oeuvres and cocktails will be served, and tours of the school will be offered.

Call 866-575-9066 or send a message to jeff@howtoquitworking.com for more information.